Demand for CBI inquiry in Nadimarg Massacre

1849. SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Kashmiri pandits living in the Kashmir Valley had demanded CBI inquiry into the Nadimarg massacre of 24 Hindus in March, 2003;

(b) if so, whether the demand has been met; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) to (c) After the incident of Nadimarg on March 23/24, 2003, some demands by Kashmiri pandits had been raised for judicial inquiry or CBI inquiry in the whole incident leading to the massacre of 24 Kashmiri pandits. However, as reported by State Government of J&K, the police investigation by a Special team of officer led by a Deputy Superintendent of Police has resulted in the case being challaned in the court of law against 8 persons. In addition a departmental inquiry was initiated by the J&K Police in respect of Police personnel who were deployed for guard duty at the minority picket at Nadimarg. As a consequence to the findings of the departmental inquiry 7 police constable who were on guard duty on the day of the incident have been dismissed/discharged from service.

Kidnappings for Ransom

1850. DR. DASARI NARAYANA RAO: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that kidnappings for ransom have become a booming business in many parts of the country taking an ugly and dangerous situation;

(b) if so, the details of such cases during the last one year, State-wise;

(c) whether Government propose to take initiative and give direction to the States to curb this menace; and

(d) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI HARIN PATHAK): (a) and (b) As per the information compiled by the National Crime Records Bureau, the State-wise incidence of kidnapping and abduction for ransom during the year 2002 is given at Statement-I (See below).

(c) and (d) The detection, registration, investigation and prevention of crimes are primarily the responsibilities of the State Governments. However, the Government have been advising the State Governments from time to time more focused attention for improving the administration of criminal justice system. Central Bureau of Investigation have constituted a Special Cell known as "Criminal Intelligence Cell" with Head Quarters at New Delhi for setting up a Computerised Data Bank on All India basis regarding professional gangs involved in kidnapping of minors for begging, kidnapping of girls and women for prostitution and kidnappings committed for ransom.
